WAR ON THE SPEAKEASIES.

Being Waged at New Matamoras, This County.

The following special gives some additional facts in regard to the shooting at New Matamoras, mentioned in Wednesday's Leader. Cline is now in jail here.

NEW MATAMORAS, O., Feb. 24.—A great deal of excitement has been caused here by an open war being waged against the speakeasies which are moored along the banks of the river. Yesterday morning Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Okey List followed their husbands to a floating speakeasy and the Cunningham woman cut it loose from the bank.

Andy Cline, who was in charge of the boat, came out on the front of it and shot into the crowd, which had been attracted by the affair. The bullet hit Edward Gross, cashier of the New Matamoras bank, but only inflicted a slight injury.

Two men in the crowd then fired into the boat, but did no damage. The speakeasy then dropped down the river and landed at the head of Williamson's island. The proprietor of another boat took fright and dropped down to the same place and tied up.

Cline is a bad character, having a record of killing one man and being in many desperate fights. Cline did not own the boat, but was running it for the proprietor who was arrested Saturday and put in the Tyler county, West Virginia, jail for selling liquor without a license. After his arrest the boat was brought to this side of the river.

An Untimely Death.

Miss A. Blanche McConnell died Wednesday of lung trouble, at the home of her father, Mr. James McConnell, West Side. The deceased was nineteen years of age and a well known and highly respected young lady. Her untimely death will be keenly felt by a host of friends. A sad and singular coincidence is that her death occurred exactly two years after the death of her sister, Minnie, who was a victim of the same disease.

The Muskogum Improvement.

Engineer Mooser's annual report shows that the expenses of the year were $51,916.10. His report shows that there were 38,267 passengers during the year. Freight is as follows: General merchandise, 24,251 tons; coal, 9,931; live stock, 462; oil, 4,333; wheat, 980; corn, 1,413; wool, 130; lumber, 12,420; brick, 1,972; hay, 416; salt, 450; potatoes, 330; sand, 30,000 tons.

The Tools Recovered.

The Vienna Oil Co. encountered a heavy flow of gas deep in the Big Injun sand on Saturday at 1500 feet. The flow is sufficiently strong to furnish fuel for that and other wells in the vicinity. The well will be drilled on through to the Berea, which it is expected to reach the latter part of this week.

A Safe Field.

The Noble Oil Company's well on the Isaac Reed farm, in the Cat's Creek field is reported as good for 200 barrels. There have been several changes of property and leases in the Cat's Creek field recently and all for big prices. The oil men seem to recognize it as a safe field.—Caldwell Republican.

A Menace to Horses.

We don't drive a horse, but a number of people who do have remarked that a dangerous crossing exists where the Terminal track crosses Third street—a place in which a horse might easily catch his hoof and give it injury.

Scott—Slash.

Mr. Asa W. Scott, of this city, and Miss Ora L. Slash, of Parkersburg, were married about 12 o'clock Tuesday night by Squire B. E. Guyton. Both are well known young colored people of their respective cities.

Case Continued.

The case of J. T. Hart vs. The Marietta Boiler Works to recover an amount which he claims is due him on a contract, was on trial in Common Pleas Court Tuesday, but was continued to next Monday.

Choral Society.

The Choral Society will hold their regular rehearsal at Andrews Hall at 7 o'clock this evening. All members are requested to attend Special rehearsal for altos after regular practice.

Keystone State Injured.

The Keystone State on her down trip Tuesday caught some heavy drift in her wheel when near Little Hocking, and broke an important piece of timber, so that she will lie to for repairs.

Selden Chapman.

Selden Chapman died Monday night at his home near Whipple. The services will be held Thursday at 10:30 a. m. at the Universalist church near Lower Salem, O.

Taking Stock.

Mrs. Sophia Patterson has sold her stock of merchandise at Coal Run, and will move to Marietta. Her son, Auditor Patterson, is at home now, taking stock.

Athens' Opera House (?)

The Daily Gazette of our sister city, Athens, lets itself loose on their so-called opera house, and tells over as follows: That it is a perfect torture to sit in these rigid, rickety chairs for two hours and listen to an entertainment, however good, no one will deny. The room is dingy, the plastering loose, the scenery torn, the curtain ragged, the acoustic properties miserable, the ventilation bad, and many other defects which could be remedied for a moderate amount of money. It is without doubt the greatest drawback in our little city, and one which must be removed.

CASCARETS stimulate ver. kidneys and bowels. Never sicken, weaken or gripe.

An Oil Deal.

The United-States Oil Co. on Tuesday closed a deal with Lysander Dudley and J. V. Carney for the royalty on 65 acre tract of land in the Hendershot field.

The lease is the one purchased by Dndley & Carney of John Onsel.

The price paid was $3,000.

M. S. Isherwood of this city, made the sale.

The block, while entirely undeveloped, is considered a valuable one.

Had to Come Back.

The Ohio River Road was seriously crippled Wednesday by the high water and the southbound trains were unable to get below Point Pleasant, W. Va. A number of parties who left over that road for points west were compelled to return.

HORRIBLE IF TRUE.

Bawdy House Set on Fire and Inmates Burned to Death.

SISTERSVILLE, W. VA., Feb. 21. An indefinite rumor came here today to the effect that some people out in the interior of Tyler county, desiring to be rid of a speakeasy and bawdy house, set the building on fire, before warning the inmates. The report further conveys the information rather unsatisfactorily that John Jackson, Frank Stewart, Stella Woods and Anna Johnson were burned so badly that they died.
